Business Documents: Homework Review

1. The Document Journey

A business transaction follows a specific path. Complete the flow below by filling in the missing documents in the correct order.

Step Number	Name of Document
Step 3	Order
Step 4	Delivery
Step 5	Invoice

2. Who Sends What?

For each document listed below, identify who sends it (the Buyer or the Seller) and briefly explain its main purpose.

Document	Sent By	Purpose / Function
Order	Buyer	State what they want to buy

Delivery Docket	Seller	States that order has been delivered
Invoice	Seller	States what has to be paid and who it has to be paid by

3. Mystery Documents

Read the clues below and identify which document is speaking.

A. "I list what is being delivered. I normally do NOT show prices. I must be signed at the door."

Answer:

Delivery docket

B. "I am the written request from the buyer to the seller to supply specific goods."

Answer:

Order

C. "I show the total amount the buyer must pay, including VAT. I am often called a 'bill'."

Answer:

Invoice

4. Critical Thinking

Scenario: A buyer has already sent an Order form listing exactly what they want. When the van arrives, the driver hands them a Delivery Docket.

1. Why is the Delivery Docket necessary if the buyer already sent an Order? Give two reasons.

To make sure that everyone knows it was delivered and to further clarify what was sent

2. What problem might happen later if the buyer signed the docket without checking the boxes first?

The product might be broken

5. Home Investigation

Task: Ask a parent or guardian if you can see a real invoice or bill (e.g., electricity bill, phone bill, or an online shopping invoice).

Fill in the details from the real document below:

Company sending the bill:	Type of goods/service:
Total amount due:	Payment due date:

State one difference between this real bill and the sample invoice we looked at in class:
