

Radharc 1- Scene 1

The first part of the drama takes place in a bog with a view Suíomh: Tá an chéad chuid den dráma suite i bportach le radharc tíre ar shliabh agus country view of a mountain and a lake loch.

A group of teenagers goes to the bog to paint and draw pictures of • Téann grúpa déagóirí chuig an bportach chun péinteireacht a dhéanamh agus pictiúir a the landscape. The teenagers are called Pádraig, Eilís, Eamonn Beag, tharraingt den tírdhreach. Pádraig, Eilís, Eamonn Beag, Pádraigín, Seosamh agus Sinéad Pádraigín, Seosamh and Sinéad. There's a lovely view from where they are on the bog. A view of the mountains and the lake. Seosamh and Sinéad go up on the hillock so they can get a better view of the mountain. Sinéad's friend, Pádraig, makes fun that radharc níos fearr ar an sliabh acu. Bíonn cara Sinéad, mar atá, Pádraig ag magadh faoi Sinéad loves Seosamh
Shinéad go bhfuil grá aici do Sheosamh.

Sinéad and Seosamh leave the scene and the other teenagers continue • Imíonn Sinéad agus Seosamh as radharc agus leanann na déagóirí eile orthu ag painting and sketching. After a while, Sinéad returns to the group. She says péinteireacht agus ag sceitheadail. Tar éis tamaill, filleann Sinéad ar an ngrúpa. Deir sí go that there was something disgusting up in the place she was. She says that 'some idiot' threw bhfuil rud éigin 'gránna' thuas san áit ina raibh sí. Deir sí gur chaith 'amadán éigin' rubbish there. The entire group of teenagers go to the bank of the lake bruscar ann. Téann an grúpa déagóirí go léir chuig bruach an locha.

They see big plastic bags, tin cans, bottles and old beads beside the • Feiceann siad málaí móra plaisteacha, cannaí stáin, buidéal agus seanleapacha in aice an lake. They see more torn plastic bags in the hedges. The teenagers are locha. Feiceann siad tuilleadh málaí plaisteacha stróicthe sna sceacha. Bíonn na déagóirí upset because of the rubbish because they think it is ruining the beauty trí chéile mar gheall ar an mbruscar mar ceapann siad go bhfuil sé ag milleadh áilleacht of the area. Sinéad feels they can't do much about it. They decide that they na háite. Braithíonn Sinéad nach mór dóibh rud éigin a dhéanamh faoi. Socraíonn siad go will stay in the area and in hidden view behind the hedges to find out bhfanfaidh siad san áit agus radharc i bhfolach taobh thiar de sceacha chun fáil amach who was dumping the rubbish cé atá ag dumpáil an bhruscair san áit.

Sinéad wants to organise a protest against the dumping. The ash • Teastaíonn ó Shinéad agóid i gcoinne na dumpála a eagrú. Iarrann sí ar Sheosamh páirt Seosamh to join her in the protest. He says he would be happy to take part in the protest a ghlacadh san agóid léi. Deir sé go mbeidh sé sásta páirt a ghlacadh san agóid agus and he takes Sinéad's hand. The two teenagers see two men carrying stuff from beireann sé greim ar lámh Shinéad. Feiceann na déagóirí beirt fhear ag iompar stuif ón the van to a place on the left. They are dumping a pile of plastic bags, a pile of wood veain go dtí áit ar clé. Tá siad ag dumpáil carn de mhálaí plaisteacha, carn d'adhmaid agus and so on. Seosamh secretly takes a photo of the men. Sinéad sees him mar sin de. Glacann Seosamh grianghraf faoi rún de na fir. Feiceann Sinéad é á doing this. Seosamh puts the camera on the ground behind the hedge. dhéanamh seo. Cuireann Seosamh an ceamara ar an talamh taobh thiar den sceaigh.

Sinéad recognises the men. They're called Séamus Dubh and Peadairín Ó Thóin an Bhaile.
• Aithníonn Sinéad na fir. Séamus Dubh agus Peadairín Ó Thóin an Bhaile is ainm dóibh.

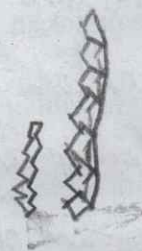

The whole thing really annoys her because they help Sinéad's father. Sinéad Cuireann an rud uilig isteach go mór uirthi mar tagaíonn siad le hathair Shinéad. Tá a knows her father will be furious if she tells on them. Séamus Dubh and fhios ag Sinéad go mbeidh a hathair ar buile má sceitheadh sí orthu. Criochnaíonn Peadairín finish their dumping and have a conversation
Séamus Dubh agus Peadairín a gcuid dumpála agus bíonn comhrá acu.

Peadairín is worried that they will be caught dumping and he mentions that there
• Tá inní ar Pheadairín go mbéarfai orthu ag déanamh na dumpála agus luann sé go bhfuil is a notice that says anyone dumping in the area will be fined €800.
fógra ann a deir go ngearrfar 800 euro ar éinne a dhéanann dumpáil san áit.

Séamus says they don't have to worry about it - that they have been dumping in the • Deir Séamus nach gá dóibh a bheith buartha faoi - go bhfuil siad ag dumpáil san áit le place for a long while. He says that no one will catch them and no one will know they fada an lá. Deir sé nach mbéarfaidh éinne orthu agus nach mbeidh a fhios ag éinne gur are the ones dumping rubbish in it. According to Séamus, even if someone found iadsan a bhíonn ag dumpáil bruscair ann. Dar le Séamus, fiú dá bhfaigheadh éinne amach out that they are the ones that dump rubbish in it, they have important friends - namely, Mac gurb iad iadsan a bhíonn ag dumpáil bruscair ann, tá cairde tábhachtacha acu - mar atá, an Mháistir, the Teachta Dála. Sinéad is disgusted when she hears this because Mac an Mháistir, an Teachta Dála. Bíonn uafás ar Shinéad nuair a chloiseann sí an méid they are talking about her Dad.
sin mar tá siad ag tagairt dá Daid.

Seosamh puts his arm around Sinéad's shoulder and gives her solace. He says • Cuireann Seosamh a lámh timpeall ar ghualainn Shinéad agus tugann sé solás di. Deir sé that her father hasn't done anything wrong and not to worry about it. He thinks nach bhfuil aon rud mícheart déanta ag a hathair agus gan a bheith buartha faoi. Dar it's just blabber from the two men leis nach bhfuil ann ach bladar ón mbeirt fhear.

Sinéad confesses to Seamus that she is worried the other teenagers won't stand with them because Seamus Dubh is Eamonn Beag's uncle. The other teenagers come out of the places they were hiding. Most of the teenagers want to sue Seamus Dubh and Peadairín. Sinéad wants to organise the protest against the Shéamus Dubh agus Peadairín. Teastaíonn ó Shinéad an agóid a eagrú i gcoinne na dumpála in aice leis an loch. Eamonn Beag Seamus Dubh's nephew is not at ease about the whole thing however. He looks worried and says ~~to~~ leak it is not wise to leak to the neighbours. He leaves on his own. Then the other teenagers leave ~~quite~~ quietly from the stage. go ciun on stáitse.

d'fhéach sé
he looked Feiceann sé
he sees

Radharc 2 - Scene 2

Setting: Scene 2 is situated in the office of the county council Suíomh: Tá radharc 2 suite in oifig na comhairle contae.

Tadhg Ó Cuill, an officer of the council, sits at the table in his office in the county council building. A protest against the dumping is ongoing outside the building. The voices are heard shouting inside in the office. It is the protest that Sinéad and the group of teenagers organised against the dumping that is on outside the offices of the county council. Tadhg looks out the window and he sees something that surprises him. He lets out a little sigh and he puts his hand to his ~~behind~~ thoughtfully. cuireann sé lámh lena smig go machnamhaich.

~~Teachta~~ Teachta Dála Seán Mac an Mháistir comes into the office. He is upset and Tagann an Teachta Dála Seán Mac an Mháistir isteach san oifig. Tá sé tri chéile agus furios. He is taking stuff off his face. He says to Tadhg that he is furios with the students that are taking part in the protest. He says he is ~~embarrassed~~ that the councillor can't walk to his own office without being attacked. He criticises the parents of the young people saying that ~~the~~ the parents have a lack of control over them. Tadhg says he can't do anything about the protest. He explains to Seán that the young people are demanding that the law is enforced on people that are illegally dumping beside the lake - a place where there is a notice from the county council saying that anyone who throws rubbish in it will be fined. He says that he has called the Gardaí to keep an eye on them. Seán calls them a "rabble" and says the young people in the rabble should get three months in prison. Tadhg mentions with a secret smile that he saw the Teachta Dála Seán

Mac an Mháistir's daughter (Sinéad) in the crowd. Seán is taken by surprise and says Sinéad ~~went abroad~~ A smile is seen on Tadhg's face again just walked by. Seán explains the reason he came to see Tadhg. He explains that his old friends Seamus Duff and Peadairín Thoin an Bhaile will be in court. Seán wants the County Council to put the case back. He says there is fake evidence being put against them. He puts a brown envelope on Tadhg's desk. Tadhg ignores the envelope on the table. He says this case must go ahead ~~but~~ but certain points will be mentioned in favour of the pair and they will make an effort to find witnesses in their favour. He says he will talk to the lawyer that will be working on the side of the council for the court case. He explains to Seán ~~the council~~ that it's not the county council, but they young people that are protesting against the dumping that are suing Seamus Dubh and Peadairín. Seán says he is sure that Tadhg will do 'the right thing' as he always has.

igarracht finné ina bhfabhar a aimsiú. Deir sé go labhróidh sé leis an dlíodóir a bheidh ag obair ar son na comhairle don chás cúirte. Míníonn sé do Sheán nach í an chomhairle, contae ach na daoine óga atá ag déanamh agóide i gcoinne na dumpála atá ag cur an dlí ar Sheamus Dubh agus ar Pheadairín. Deir Seán go bhfuil sé cinnte go ndéanfaidh Tadhg 'an rud ceart' mar a rinne sé riamh, dar leis.

Radharc 3 - Scene 3

Setting: Scene 3 takes place in a courtroom. Seamus Dubh, Peadairín Thóin an Bhaile and their lawyer are to be seen on the left. The lawyer is called Mac Uí Dhroma. Mae Uí Chríofa, the young people's lawyer, is seen on the left. Seosamh isn't there. Pádraig, Éilís and Pádraigin further on the left and Eamon Beag isn't to be seen. The Court Clerk is sitting.

Suíomh: Tá radharc 3 suite i seomra cúirte. Feictear Séamus Dubh, Peadairín Thóin an Bhaile agus a dlíodóir ar clé. Mac Uí Dhroma is ainm don dlíodóir. Feictear Mac Uí Chríofa, an dlíodóir na ndaoine óga, ar clé. Níl Seosamh ann. Tá Pádraig, Éilís agus Pádraigin níos faide ar clé agus níl Éamonn Beag le feiceáil. Tá Cléireach na Cúirte ina shuí. The Court Clerk is sitting.

Sinéad is talking to the young people's lawyer. She is worried Seosamh hasn't arrived yet. She questions Pádraig and he says Seosamh said something about his camera to him. Then Sinéad remembers Seosamh left the camera at the bog.

Tá Sinéad ag caint le dlíodóir na ndaoine óga. Tá sí buartha nach bhfuil Seosamh tagtha go fóill. Cuireann sí ceist ar Phádraig agus deir sé go ndúirt Seosamh rud éigin faoina ceamara leis. Ansin cuimhníonn Sinéad gur fhág Seosamh an ceamara ar an bog.

The court case starts. Mac Uí Chríofa, the young people's lawyer, explains to the judge that the young people want to sue Seamus Dubh and Peadairín because they were dumping rubbish in the beautiful glen and the group

Tosaíonn an cás cúirte. Míníonn Mac Uí Chríofa, dlíodóir na ndaoine óga, don bhreitheamh go bhfuil na daoine óga ag iarraidh an dlí a chur ar Sheamus Dubh agus Peadairín toisc go raibh siad ag dumpáil bruscair sa ghleann álainn agus go bhfaca grúpa of young people saw them. The judge asks the lawyer if all the young people from the group are present. The lawyer explains that four of the six are present. Mac Uí Ghríofa explains to the judge that the group of teenagers were painting at the bog on the 20th day of the month and they saw the two men dumping rubbish illegally. The judge asks the lawyer if the six young people agree that they saw the two men accused of dumping rubbish. Mac Uí Ghríofa says that the four that are in the courtroom agree.

daoine óga iad. Fiafraíonn an bheithneamh den dlíodóir an bhfuil na daoine óga go léir ón ngrúpa i láthair. Míníonn an dlíodóir dó go bhfuil ceathrar den seisear i láthair.

• Míníonn Mac Uí Ghríofa don bheithneamh go raibh an grúpa déagóirí ag péinteireacht ar an bportach ar an 20ú lá den mhí agus go bhfaca siad an bheirt fhear ag dumpáil bruscair go mídhleathach. Fiafraíonn an bheithneamh den dlíodóir an aontaíonn an seisear daoine óga go bhfaca siad an bheirt fhear atá cúisithe as dumpáil bruscair. Deir Mac Uí Ghríofa go n-aontaíonn an ceathrar atá sa seomra cúirte.

Then Mac Uí Dhroma (the lawyer of the two accused) asks Mac Uí Ghríofa why all six are not present in the courtroom. The young people's lawyer explains that Seosamh Mac Domhnaill is searching for important evidence for the case and they are expecting the sixth any minute. Mac Uí Dhroma says he can help them find the sixth person.

• Ansin fiafraíonn Mac Uí Dhroma (dlíodóir na beirte atá cúisithe) de Mhac Uí Ghríofa an fáth nach bhfuil an seisear go léir i láthair sa seomra cúirte. Míníonn dlíodóir na ndaoine óga go bhfuil Seosamh Mac Domhnaill ag cuardach fianaise thábhachtach don chás agus go bhfuil siad ag súil leis an séú duine nóimead ar bith. Deir Mac Uí Dhroma gur féidir leis cabhrú leo an séú duine a aimsiú.

Mac Uí Dhroma ^{then} calls on the sixth person from the group of young people - namely Eamonn Beag Ó Murchú. Mac Uí says to Sínead that things are not working out too well for their case.

• Glaonn Mac Uí Dhroma ar an séú duine ón ngrúpa de dhaoine óga ansin - mar atá, Eamonn Beag Ó Murchú. Deir Mac Uí Ghríofa le Sínead go bhfuil sé buartha nach bhfuil cúrsaí ag obair amach go rómhaith dá gcás.

Eamonn Beag says to Mac Uí Dhroma that he isn't sure that it was Séamus Dubh and Peadairín that were dumping rubbish the day himself and the group of teenagers were painting at the bog. He says that there was a hedge and that he does not remember the details but that he was not able to see the men who were dumping properly. Mac Uí Dhroma advises the judge not to charge the two men on that basis without more definite • Deir Eamonn Beag le Mac Uí Dhroma nach bhfuil sé cinnte gurbh iad Séamus Dubh agus Peadairín a bhí ag dumpáil bruscair an lá a raibh sé féin agus an grúpa déagóirí ag péinteireacht ar an bportach. Deir sé go raibh sceaigh ann agus nach cuimhin leis na mionsonraí ach nach raibh sé abailta ná fir a bhí ag dumpáil a fheiceáil i gceart. Molann Mac Uí Dhroma don bheithneamh gan an bheirt fhear a chuíseamh ar an mbonn sin gan charge na dhá fhear ar an bbonn sin gan aon bunús níos cinnte.

evidence. The young people's lawyer asks the judge to give them a five minute recess.
fianaise níos cinnte. Iarrann dlíodóir na ndaoine óga ar an mbreitheamh sos cúig nóiméad a thabhairt dóibh.

Pádraig is angry that Eamonn Beag was "failing" them. Éilís understands Eamonn's situation because he is related to Séamus Dubh. Sinéad explains to the group that Seosamh has gone back to the bog to find his camera and that Seosamh took a few photos of the two men dumping rubbish that day.
Bíonn fearg ar Phádraig go raibh Eamonn Beag ag 'cliseadh' orthu. Tuigeann Éilís cás Eamonn mar tá sé gaolta le Séamus Dubh. Sínead eagraíonn don ghrúpa go bhfuil Seosamh tar éis dul ar ais chuig an bportach chun a cheamara a aimsiú agus gur ghlac Seosamh cúpla grianghraf den bheirt fhear ag dumpáil an bhruscair ar an lá sin.

The judge returns to the courtroom. He is about to end the case in the pair's favour when Seosamh runs into the courtroom. Mac Uí Ghríofa explains that they believe Seosamh has important evidence that will help their case. Seosamh is weak but hands over a few photos to the young people's lawyer.
Filleann an breitheamh ar an seomra cúirte. Tá sé ar tí deireadh a chur leis an gcás i bhfabhar na beirte nuair a ritheann Seosamh isteach sa seomra cúirte. Míníonn Mac Uí Ghríofa go gcreideann siad go bhfuil fianaise thábhachtach ag Seosamh a chabhróidh lena gcás. Tá Seosamh lag ach síneann sé cúpla grianghraf chuig dlíodóir na ndaoine óga.

Mac Uí Ghríofa shows the photos to the judge and the judge asks Mac Uí Dhroma to come and look at the photos. Mac Uí Dhroma is horribly shocked. He sees the two men dumping the trash in the photos, assumingly. He explains the story quietly to Séamus Dubh and Peadairín.
Taispeánann Mac Uí Ghríofa na grianghraif don bhreitheamh agus iarrann an breitheamh ar Mac Uí Dhroma teacht chuige chun feachaint ar na grianghraif. Baintear geit uafásach as Mac Uí Dhroma. Feiceann sé an bheirt fhear ag dumpáil an bhruscair sna grianghraif, is dócha. Míníonn sé an scéal go ciúin do Sheamus Dubh agus Peadairín.

After that conversation, Mac Uí Dhroma says they are withdrawing their case and admitting they are guilty. The judge fines them €800. The two leave the court and there is a big round of applause from the young people. They raise their flags and let out a loud cheer.
Tar éis an chomhrá sin, deir Mac Uí Dhroma go bhfuil siad ag tarraingt a gcáis siar agus ag admháil go bhfuil siad clontach. Gearrann an breitheamh fineáil ocht gcéad euro orthu. Imíonn an bheirt fhear as an gcúirt agus tagann bualadh bos mór ó na daoine óga. Andaíonn siad a gcuid bratach agus ligeann siad liú buach astu.

Sinéad gives Seosamh a helping hand to keep him on his feet on his way out the door. Sinéad looks back and sees Eamonn Beag standing alone and looking very lonely. She feels sorry for him and signals for Tugann Sinéad lámh chunta do Sheosamh chun a choimeád ar a chosa ar an mbealach amach an doras. Féachann Sinéad siar agus feiceann sí Eamonn Beag ina sheasamh leis féin agus cuma an-uaigneach air. Bíonn trua aici dó agus tugann sí comhartha dó teacht him to come with them. He runs towards them with joy. The young people sing a victory song as they walk out of the courthouse with their flags flying.

Ms. Collins

They sing that dumping is over and pollution is banned

leo. Ritheann sé chucu le háthas. Canann na daoine óga amhrán buach agus iad ag dul amach doras na cúirte lena mbratacha ar crochadh. Canann siad go bhfuil deireadh le dumail agus go bhfuil cosc ar thruailliú.